

CHARLESTON – 1

This walk is through scenic, peaceful grazing country where birds fly free and the wind whistles through the trees.

Follow this quiet and scenic track to a road junction then continue along the track on the left (DUNN ROAD) to the next road junction where you go left onto Bell Springs Road for the return trek to the Park entrance.
